

GOSPEL FOR THE GLOVEBOX

Little gospel conversations for the ride home

Young children learn through simple words, repetition, pictures, movement, and everyday experiences. You don't need to give another lesson. A few words on the way home, at dinner, or at bedtime are enough.

LESSON 1: I AM A CHILD OF GOD

GOSPEL TRUTH

Your child is a child of Heavenly Father. He knows them, loves them, and wants them to grow and return to Him someday.

HOW TO TEACH IT

Make it personal. Use your child's name: "Emma is a child of God. Heavenly Father knows Emma and loves her." Three-year-olds understand belonging better than explanations. Repeat the same simple truth often.

ON THE WAY HOME

Ask: "Who loves you?" Then remind them: "Heavenly Father loves you—and so do I."

LESSON 2: HEAVENLY FATHER HAS A PLAN FOR ME

GOSPEL TRUTH

We lived with Heavenly Father before we came to earth. We came here to learn and grow, and someday we can return to Him.

HOW TO TEACH IT

Keep the plan concrete. A young child doesn't need a diagram or a long explanation. Try: "We lived with Heavenly Father. We came to earth. We are learning and growing. Someday we can live with Him again."

ON THE WAY HOME

Ask: "What are you learning to do?" Celebrate the answer; sharing, praying, helping, being kind. Growing is part of Heavenly Father's plan.
