

GOSPEL FOR THE GLOVEBOX

Little gospel conversations for the ride home

Young children learn through simple words, repetition, pictures, movement, and everyday experiences. You don't need to give another lesson. A few words on the way home, at dinner, or at bedtime are enough.

LESSON 13: MY FAMILY CAN BE TOGETHER FOREVER

GOSPEL TRUTH

Heavenly Father loves families and has made it possible for families to be together forever.

HOW TO TEACH IT

“Forever” is hard for a young child to understand. Begin with belonging: “You are part of our family. We love you. Heavenly Father loves families.” Their understanding of temples and eternal families can grow later.

ON THE WAY HOME

Ask: “What do you love about our family?” Then say: “Heavenly Father wants families to be together.”

LESSON 14: I WILL OBEY

GOSPEL TRUTH

Heavenly Father gives commandments because He loves us. Loving rules from trusted adults help keep children safe.

HOW TO TEACH IT

Keep expectations simple, positive, and immediate: hold my hand near cars, use gentle hands, or come when called. Notice success: “You stopped at the curb. That helped keep you safe.”

ON THE WAY HOME

Ask: “What rule helps keep us safe?” Practice that one rule together.
