

GOSPEL FOR THE GLOVEBOX

Little gospel conversations for the ride home

Young children learn through simple words, repetition, pictures, movement, and everyday experiences. You don't need to give another lesson. A few words on the way home, at dinner, or at bedtime are enough.

LESSON 15: I WILL BE THANKFUL

GOSPEL TRUTH

Good things come from Heavenly Father, and we can thank Him for them.

HOW TO TEACH IT

Gratitude is easiest when it is concrete. Name family, food, toys, animals, sunshine, friends, and bodies. Connect one thing to prayer: "I thank Thee, Heavenly Father, for the warm sun."

ON THE WAY HOME

Ask: "What made you happy today?" Turn the answer into one sentence of thanks.

LESSON 16: I WILL SAY I'M SORRY

GOSPEL TRUTH

When we hurt someone, we can say we are sorry and try to make things better.

HOW TO TEACH IT

For a young child, saying "I'm sorry" is only the beginning. Help them return something, rebuild, give comfort, or choose kindness next time. Keep correction calm and specific: "She is sad. Let's help her."

ON THE WAY HOME

Ask: "Is there something we can help make better?" Practice one small act of repair.
