

GOSPEL FOR THE GLOVEBOX

Little gospel conversations for the ride home

LESSON 19: I CAN BE HAPPY

GOSPEL TRUTH

Heavenly Father and the people who care for children want them to experience happiness in their lives.

HOW TO TEACH IT

Help children notice happy moments without teaching that they must feel happy all the time.

Name feelings simply: “You look happy while you dance.” “You feel sad right now, and I am here.” All feelings are allowed.

ON THE WAY HOME

Ask: “What made you smile today?” Share your own small happy moment too.

LESSON 20: I WILL BE REVERENT

GOSPEL TRUTH

Reverence is love and respect for Heavenly Father and Jesus Christ.

HOW TO TEACH IT

Reverence does not mean expecting a young child to sit perfectly still. Practice it in small moments: fold arms for prayer, listen briefly, sing softly, or look at a picture of Jesus. Notice the moment: “Your body became quiet for our prayer. That was reverent.”

ON THE WAY HOME

Ask: “When did church feel peaceful today?” Help your child remember one small reverent moment.

You don't need to recreate Nursery at home.

One question. One little conversation.
