

GOSPEL FOR THE GLOVEBOX

Little gospel conversations for the ride home

LESSON 27: THE SACRAMENT HELPS ME THINK ABOUT JESUS CHRIST

GOSPEL TRUTH

The sacrament bread and water help us remember Jesus Christ.

HOW TO TEACH IT

Teach why the sacrament is special, not only that children must be quiet. A very young child can look at a picture of Jesus or think about something He did. Practice one gentle sentence before the sacrament: “The bread and water help us remember Jesus.”

ON THE WAY HOME

Ask: “Who do we remember during the sacrament?” “Jesus Christ.”

LESSON 28: HEAVENLY FATHER BLESSES ME THROUGH THE PRIESTHOOD

GOSPEL TRUTH

The priesthood is God’s power, and Heavenly Father uses it to bless His children.

HOW TO TEACH IT

Connect the priesthood to experiences children may recognize. Priesthood holders can give blessings, baptize, confirm, and administer the sacrament. The simplest message: “Heavenly Father blesses you and our family through the priesthood.”

ON THE WAY HOME

Ask: “How does Heavenly Father bless us through the priesthood?” Mention one familiar example: the sacrament, baptism, confirmation, or a blessing.

A REMINDER FOR GROWN-UPS

You don't need to recreate Nursery at home.

One question. One little conversation.
